

PRESS RELEASE

Nicholas Perkoski announces his candidacy for Conneaut City Council at Large in the upcoming elections in November. Perkoski states that “it would be a privilege to serve the Conneaut community in this leadership role.”

Perkoski was born and raised in Conneaut and returned to his home town five years ago when he took the position as Principal at St. John School in Ashtabula. Since his return, he had the opportunity to be in the Leadership Ashtabula County Class of 2013. He has served on the Board of Trustees for the Conneaut Art Center where he was interim Board President. He is currently on the Board for the Conneaut Human Resource Center. He is also currently serving on the City Planning Commission and Housing Commission.

Perkoski is a 1984 graduate of Conneaut High School. He received a Bachelor of Arts degree in History from the Pontifical College Josephinum and a Master of Arts degree in Educational Administration from Ursuline College in Cleveland. He has also completed course work for a Masters in Theology at Walsh University.

Throughout his career, Perkoski has been working in parishes, Catholic Schools and in a Catholic university. He has been a teacher both in Catholic high schools and at Walsh University, a principal, a Director of Religious Education and a Youth Minister. Recently he was able to return to his home parish at Corpus Christi in Conneaut, Ohio as the Director of Religious Education.

Perkoski points out that through his career and civic involvement, he has devoted his life to service to others. He said, “I have always loved Conneaut and I felt it was a true blessing to be able to return my home town and would welcome the opportunity to serve the community in the unique position as Councilman at Large .”

Perkoski asserts: “I believe in the potential Conneaut has to offer this region especially through both our natural and human resources. We need solid leadership with the creative vision to continue these efforts for the benefit of our citizens and the future economic stability of Conneaut. I believe that with my passion for Conneaut and my civic and professional experience, I can help contribute through service a member of the Conneaut City Council.”
